EGG DONOR AND RECIPIENT COMPLICATIONS INSURANCE

The Egg Donor and Recipient Cycle Contractual Liability Insurance Policy indemnifies the Insured Intended Parents up to the Limit(s) of Indemnity stated in the Schedule for their liability assumed under contract to pay medical expenses related to IVF treatment procedure medical complications that are incurred during the coverage period by the person designated as their egg donor and/or recipient.

Medical expenses resulting from medical complications related to Egg Donor Retrieval and Recipient Embryo Transfer treatment procedures are covered.

The Universal Egg Donor and Recipient Cycle Liability Insurance Policy does not mandate the accessing of any preferred provider network for required medical care resulting from retrieval and/or transfer treatment procedure related medical complications. Egg Donors and Recipients are permitted to receive the necessary medical care from any approved physician and/or qualified medical facility.
